Scottsdale, AZ – The Scottsdale Gallery Association is thrilled to announce Local Edge, the January 2017 Gold Palette Art Walk, which will take place on Thursday, January 26, 2017, from 6:30 to 9:30 PM on the ArtWalk path (Main Street between Scottsdale Road and Goldwater Boulevard and Marshall Way north of Indian School Road). Local Edge will bring together the crème de la crème of emerging, cutting edge artists working in various mediums and platforms, who will be presenting their work on the street and in temporary one-night-only presentations

As the art world continues to morph and change with technology, materials, and mediums, often blurring the lines of traditional and contemporary, SGA will bring together some of the Valley's leading and interesting artists fusing these elements.

This specific Gold Palette ArtWalk continues the story and discussion of Demonstrate! (our November Gold Palette ArtWalk) and will appeal to all demographics and audiences, giving them insight and highlights from emerging, edgy artists to the seasoned, fine artists already on display in our world-renowned galleries.

Artists wishing to participate in this unique display of innovative art should submit the images of five to seven of their pieces along with a short biography to Veronica Graffius at vgraffius@calvincharlesgallery.com.

About Gold Palette Art Walk

The Gold Palette ArtWalk Series will provide the visitor with a variety of art themes and experiences from video works, western and Native American art to a car show infused with live artists. All events will be enhanced by music and entertainment to the theme of the Gold Palette series.
