Moments of reflection, wonder & awe fill the work of artist & gallery owner Cyndy Carstens. Her paintings are inspired by atmospheres of light and shadow in the complexion of color. The Southwestern light inhales and exhales, breathing its diversity – vibrant then subtle – and at any given time, unlike a few minutes before.

The gallery also serves as Cyndy's studio where she can be found in front of her easel daily. Carstens pays special attention to movement, composition, emotion, and detail while fusing brush and palette knife work into each work of art. Paintings range in size from miniature to large-scale.

DIAMOND BLOOM

Delicately emerging from the landscape, Diamond Bloom serves as an icon marking the southern edge of the Scottsdale Arts District. Reminiscent of a cactus flower, the sculpture's radiant changing qualities of light, shadow, and color contribute to its dynamic botanical form. Two upward sweeping arcs converge above creating a passageway to the formal entrance of Western Spirit: Scottsdale's Museum of the West. The brass panels, dichroic glass fins, and colored lights are strategically placed to produce a luminous colorplay both day and night.

HORSESHOE FALLS

This may be Arizona's only non-equestrian equestrian monument! The iconic shape of the horseshoe representing the strength and stability of the West is the central form of this downtown rest stop.

Tall pillars made of stacked horseshoes stand within a horseshoe-shaped concrete seat wall. Dense fog periodically rises from a bed of river rock and cools the space for passing pedestrians and cyclists taking a moment to pause.

JACK KNIFE

Ed Mell is one of Arizona's premier artists. Jack Knife was his first large-scale sculpture. The bronze stands over eight feet high on its base and is modeled after Scottsdale's official city seal, a rider astride a bucking horse.

"Jack Knife has a reverence for the Old West. It is not traditional, but yet it has a traditional theme. The angularity accelerates the power and energy of the rider and horse, more than accurate depiction." –Ed Mell

VINTAGE

Vintage is a life-size bronze sculpture of a nude woman. It was created by Patricia Stillman and donated to the Scottsdale Fine Art Collection by the artist.

Patricia Stillman was born in Canada and worked in costume design, modeling, and sculpting. She studied painting and sculpture at the Scottsdale Artists' School.
