DIAMOND BLOOM

Delicately emerging from the landscape, Diamond Bloom serves as an icon marking the southern edge of the Scottsdale Arts District. Reminiscent of a cactus flower, the sculpture's radiant changing qualities of light, shadow, and color contribute to its dynamic botanical form. Two upward sweeping arcs converge above creating a passageway to the formal entrance of Western Spirit: Scottsdale's Museum of the West. The brass panels, dichroic glass fins, and colored lights are strategically placed to produce a luminous colorplay both day and night.

HORSESHOE FALLS

This may be Arizona's only non-equestrian equestrian monument! The iconic shape of the horseshoe representing the strength and stability of the West is the central form of this downtown rest stop.

Tall pillars made of stacked horseshoes stand within a horseshoe-shaped concrete seat wall. Dense fog periodically rises from a bed of river rock and cools the space for passing pedestrians and cyclists taking a moment to pause.

Ed Mell is one of Arizona's premier artists. Jack Knife was his first large-scale sculpture. The bronze stands over eight feet high on its base and is modeled after Scottsdale's official city seal, a rider astride a bucking horse.

"Jack Knife has a reverence for the Old West. It is not traditional, but yet it has a traditional theme. The angularity accelerates the power and energy of the rider and horse, more than accurate depiction." –Ed Mell

Sel Bistro invites you into Chef Branden Levine's modern take on French-inspired dining in Old Town Scottsdale. Once known for fine-dining formality, Sel now reimagines itself as an upscale bistro—approachable, energetic, and unmistakably chef-driven.

Our à la carte menu blends classic French technique with global influences, encouraging shared plates, spontaneous ordering, and meals that unfold at your own pace.

The room is alive with conversation, clinking glasses, and a sense of ease—perfect for date nights, celebrations, or an unplanned evening that turns into something special.
